

Criminal History (CHC) Authorization & Release Form

To be employed in or hold a job with the University of North Texas or the University of North Texas System that is designated security sensitive, an applicant or employee must satisfactorily complete and pass a criminal history check (CHC). This form authorizes UNTS to obtain criminal history information on the applicant, who is seeking employment for the University or UNT System position designated as security sensitive, or a current employee promoting into a security sensitive position.

Instructions: This form is to be completed by the applicant or employee. Print legibly and complete all information requested. Return the completed form to the UNTS BSC-Employment Department via scan/email to BSCEmployment@untsystem.edu or send via fax to BSC-Employment at 940-369-5599. Once the CHC results have been received, the hiring manager will be notified by BSC-Employment.

This form must be submitted and results received prior to the first day of employment in a security sensitive position.
